BAD Tour Working Day And Night White Jumpsuit Worn By Michael Jackson (1987)

White parachute silk "magic jumpsuit" with silver studs, trapunto stitching, and buckled nylon straps. Worn by Michael Jackson during the performance of "Working Day And Night" since the Australian leg of the BAD Tour. The jumpsuit has a front zip closure and additional Velcro quick-change closures running the length of each arm, leg, and through the front of the torso. Also belonging to the suit is a black leather studded belt with Velcro closure and interior label reading "Michael Jackson." The design of the jumpsuit and the role it played in creating Michael's disappearing illusion is discussed on pages 123-128 of The King of Style by Michael Bush.

Sold by Julien's Auctions (Lot #596) for $56,250 at their 2012 "The Collection of Tompkins and Bush: Michael Jackson" auction. All pictures and screen captures are the property of their respective owners.
