Well, I have to admit I'm not an expert with CDs or vinyls... :blush

Could you explain to me how I can distinguish a first press from a later release?

Thank you.

Well I have the 1st pressings of Destiny, Off The Wall, Triumph, Thriller and Victory.

They have no barcode on the back, also the 80's epic logo if that helps?

Maybe you can go and search for them in Record Fairs. I've got all first pressing Michael and The Jacksons' CD's and recently, I've found Dangerous Italian first press.

Are you sure what you write about the barcode and the first pressings?

I was thinking that the CDs without a barcode came from a double-box for example. The barcode is than on the box, not automatically on the CD.

I am not sure that first pressings of the mentioned CDs have NO barcode. Maybe I am wrong.

Good point, I have seen a few with barcodes and some without. So I'm not really sure about that. Maybe someone has more info on this.

EDIT: I found a late 80s copy of Goin' Places on CD... it will do for now.

Barcodes didn't come until around 1987 on MJ stuff. Hence why you notice Victory does not have a barcode in 1984. When Bad was released in 1987, a Barcode was on everything, vinyl, CD etc.

I know these things. Did a lot of research. And everytime I see a CD, I look on the back to see if there is a barcode. Then I know what time it was roughly released.
