

BEWARE!! Unofficial Vinyl Releases of "Michael"

Posted by ronsweet2 - 2011/02/12 17:58

Hello Everyone:

Not a surprise, but there have been quite a few fake vinyl releases of the "Michael" album popping up on sites like Ebay. Like this highly fake "blue marble" vinyl record:

http://cgi.ebay.co.uk/MICHAEL-JACKSON-MICHAEL-BLUE-MARBLED-VINYL-/370483126595?pt=UK_Records&hash=item564283e143

Look at that cheap label (without writing) and the catalog# is "MJMICHAEL5"?? I would call this a "basement release". Translation: someone made a few of these in their basement, and is passing them off as legit. Good thing Ebay doesn't allow bootleg items, huh?!? The sad thing is, you know someone will fall for it and buy it.

There are no known "official" vinyl releases that we know of as of yet. If anyone out there finds other unofficial releases, please post them to this thread. Does anyone know for SURE when an OFFICIAL vinyl release is coming out? I keep hearing rumors, but nothing confirmed. Ron

I doubt it. There were initial reports that a vinyl release was planned, but that was months ago and the whole project for this album as far as I can see is winding down (if it was ever "wound up" to begin with!)
