A very rare DVD movie produced and directed by Brian Michael Stoller, and personally signed by him in gold ink on the case.

I'm sure I purchased this through MJWN way back in 2005, but not 100% sure but it was definitely an MJ site, hence it's also signed.

In a rare and unique film appearance Michael stars as "Agent MJ" to help guide the castaways to safety.

Also stars Eric Roberts, Charlie Schlatter, Evan Marriott, Stuart Pankin, Joyce Giraud and playmate Colleen Shannon.

It's an in your face comedy, a little corny at times - and is across between Baywatch and Airplane!

It also has bonus material which includes Top Secret behind the scenes footage of Michael at his Neverland Valley Ranch. <http://www.mjjcollectors.com/images/fbfiles/images/image-20130522-17.jpg>
