

2011 Panini Sealed boxes

Posted by PoeticXscape - 2014/03/03 17:25

I have ordered 10 sealed boxes of 2011 Panini trading cards. What are the chances of finding a swatch card? I read about a girl who got 3 in a 20 box case.

Well, it all depends on how much you're lucky, but for sure buying a full carton of 20 boxes, sealed, guarantees rare swatches as Panini said so. At least 2 swatches and various extra cards like diamonds, charted and platinums must be found.

Good Luck with this!

PS If you find platinum 101,105 and 107 please tell me as I can trade with ours.

I'm a new member, just found this website. I have been collecting vintage things I like, mostly 80's toys all my life. I just saw these Panini trading cards of Michael Jackson a couple of months ago Nov 2016 - if anybody out there wants to trade cards to complete their set I have access to many cards + boxes & even unopened cases of this product.
