Hi there :yes

If you wanna go post items here,

1. first have to go to the right section where you think the item belong you will find it at the left side Audio, Books ect....

1b Go ask if you don't have any clue where your item belong

2. inside each there are at the top a point to click (add items) if not in here.

3. after this you got a big panel where you have to set in info (words) inside the for-made colloum sections

-Don't forget the titel description

4. at finish you can go to the end and put in a picture

Max size for pictures are 600px

If any questions go ask Laura or Ronsweet who own this site for more info

Hope this help you out, to go post items :)
