Michael Jackson Black Crystal "Fantasy Glove" (1984)

From JuliensAuctions.com:

Michael Jackson Crystal Glove: Estimate: $10,000 - $12,000

Custom-designed black spandex, right-hand glove completely covered in alternating rows of black and gold Swarovski loch rosen crystals. The glove is additionally decorated with large square crystals, and baguette rhinestones at cuff. Accompanied by a letter from former assistant to Mr. [Bill] Whitten, Keith Holman who states that this gloves is one of eight gloves created by Whitten in 1984 as part of the "Fantasy Glove" series. The "Fantasy Gloves" were originally intended to take Michaels single glove concept to a new level before he settled on the now iconic single "white" glove. Jackson eventually had a custom plexiglas display case created to display his set of eight "Fantasy Gloves" at Neverland Valley Ranch.

This glove (Lot #339) sold for $50,000 at Julien's 2009 Music Icons auction.
